THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 3, 2025

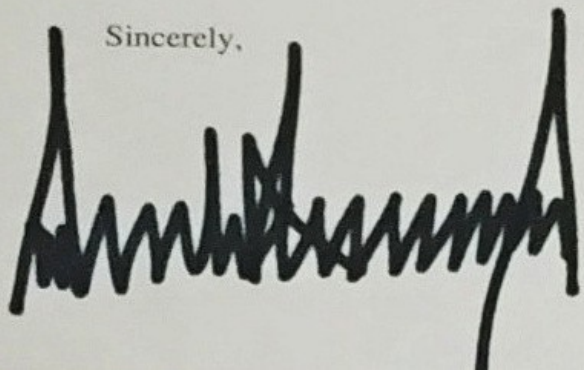
Mr. Richard W. Oliver
Durham, New Hampshire

Dear Richard,

I am pleased to join your family and friends in wishing you a happy 80th birthday! I also extend my personal gratitude for your unwavering service to our country. The grit, tenacity, and extraordinary bravery you have displayed throughout your life continue to inspire generations of Americans.

As you celebrate your special day, please know that you are among the most distinguished and revered Americans. Your selfless service and uncommon courage in defense of our Nation during the Vietnam War ensured that generations of Americans could enjoy the many blessings of our great Nation. Your sacrifices, and those of all veterans, are deserving of the utmost respect and admiration of our entire country.

Our Nation is strong because of hard-working patriots like you who believe in and defend the great American ideals of faith, family, community, and country first. I will never stop fighting for the America you and I cherish.

Melania joins me in sending best wishes as you celebrate this momentous occasion. May God continue to bless you with good health and happiness!


Sincerely,
